

Dr Jane Duggan

Stoneham Lane Surgery is pleased to announce Dr Jane Duggan is joining the practice on 1st July 2020

Our GP partnership is about working well together, in particular friendship, respect, shared values and a collective desire to work towards better patient care are important to our doctors and dedicated support team.

Dr Duggan has been a GP for the past 16 years and has been recently been working as a locum and salaried positions in Hampshire, gaining valuable knowledge and experience of what works well in a GP practice.

With specialist skills in Mental Health, Safeguarding, Sexual Health including Coil and Contraception Implants

We are delighted to extend a warm welcome to Jane and look forward to working with her at Stoneham lane Surgery
